Thank you for your letter of 7 December expressing your interest in employment with us.

We are enclosing a brochure describing our general employment requirements and a set of our Agency application forms. These forms are more detailed and comprehensive than the standard Form 57 which you have already supplied to us and provides the information we require to determine the possibilities for your employment with us.

The Honorable James E. Harrison has written to the Director of Central Intelligence regarding your application and he has been advised that we were supplying you with appropriate application materials.

Your interest is appreciated and we shall give your application prompt and careful attention.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

E. D. Nichols
Director of Personnel
